From Pathways Policy FC-20, Point 9 Foster Parent Respite, Relief, Baby-sitting

Responsibilities of the Foster Home Receiving Respite/Relief

The Foster Parent will arrange times and dates with the FCSW and respite/relief home, and transport the child/ youth to/ from the respite/relief home. Transportation costs are included in the daily stipend. The Foster Parent should drop off children to respite/relief and pick them up from respite/relief at the same time of day whenever possible.

The Foster Parent will ensure the following is forwarded with the child to the respite/relief home:

- Written information concerning the child's Case Worker, Doctor, youth worker, and the child's schedule, habits, routines, visits, etc.
- Discuss any appointments and transportation needs with the respite/relief home provider.
- Copy of the Delegation of Authority and the Personal Healthcare Number.
- Suitable clothing/ footwear adequate for the season and duration of respite.
- Any medications or special needs. Refer to FC-7 – Medication Administration

The Foster Parent is responsible to provide adequate supplies such as diapers, formula, allowance/ spending money. Respite of 10 days or longer may require further negotiation of responsibility for supplies.
